SMALLPOX HOSPITAL.

Three Additions to List of Patients-Seven Discharged.

From reports made to Dr. Wm. C. Woodward, the District health officer, it appears that there are fourteen patients in the District smallpox hospital. Two cases were reported here yesterday-John Anderson, colored, twenty years of age, residing at 237 F street southwest, and Catherine Marshall, colored, twenty-seven years of age, residing at 1151/2 Chew's alley, between 1st and 2d and E and F streets northwest. Anderson is believed to have contracted the disease from Arthur Brown, who lived at 307 G street southwest, while the Marshall woman is thought to have contracted it in Culpeper, Va., from which place she recently came. One case was reported today—Edward Brooks, colored, twenty-two years of age, residing at 317 G street southwest. The origin of this case has not yet been determined.

The following patients were discharged from the smallpox hospital today: Mary Robinson, No. 716 1st street southwest; Mary Red, No. 16 O'Brien's court northwest; Florence Brooks, James Brooks and Rose Brown all of 149, 11th street and Rosa Brown, all of 1425 11th street northwest; Lottie Lampkins, No. 237 F street southwest; Rachel Jackson, No. 1925 Temperance avenue northwest.

Demand for Good Roads. Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. RIVERDALE, Md., March 27, 1899.

The Vansville Farmers' Club dined with Mr. J. A. Blundon Saturday evening, March 25, after which those present proceeded to discuss the crying necessity for better roads throughout Prince George's county. pike leading to Baltimore, it is said, especially needs attention. A committee, to act in conjunction with several appointed at the mass meeting held two weeks ago to UNIONS and CORNS at the mass meeting held two weeks ago to discuss this topic, was selected from members of the Farmers' Club to visit Marlboro the second Tuesday in April for the purpose of asking for a sufficient appropriation to the end of the general improvement of Prince George's county roads.

The members present were Captain Sylvester, president of Maryland Agricultural College; Prof. McDonald, state chemist; Dr. Hill, Messrs. Casard, Brashears, Nesbit, Mulican, Bealle, Bends, Bennett, Stanley and Blundon. Other guests from Riverdale were Dr. Simonds, Mr. Charles Helm, H. B.

Fowler and Father Tower of St. Jerome's Church, Hyattsville.

The annual election of officers resulted in Mr. Luther Brashears being chosen president, and Mr. D. M. Nesbit, secretary.

Mrs. Robt. Mangum, who has been very fill of diphtheria for the past week, is now out of danger.

Fined for Expectorating.

Expectorating in a Metropolitan street car was the charge against a young man named George Smithson, who was tried in the Police Court today. He was arrested last night by Policeman Cornwell on 41/2 street southwest on complaint of Conductor Brooks and not on a warrant.

The conductor gave direct testimony against the defendant, and said he could not possibly be mistaken. When he spoke to Smithson, he sald, the latter told him there would be a cyclone there in a minute. This Smithson denied, and said he remarked to the conductor: "You remind me of a man named Sykes."

Edward Sullivan, who was with Mr. Smithson declared that his friend had not expectorated on the floor. The conductor said he had no witness other than himself. Judge Kimball imposed a $3 fine.

Lecture by Bishop Satterlee.

Bishop Satterlee has consented to deliver the lecture of the Churchman's League course (which was postponed from March) this evening, in the Church of the Epiphany, at 8 o'clock, his subject being "Cathedral Work of the Future in America." It is expected that the bishop will have some-thing to say as to the present status and future prospects of the proposed Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, to be located on Mount St. Alban.
